GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE

INDIA - AUXILIARY DUTY OF CUSTOMS

Extension of Time-Limit

Decision of 31 August 1977

Considering that the CONTRACTING PARTIES by Decisions of 15 November 1973, 30 April 1974, 5 May 1975 and 30 July 1976, waived until 30 June 1977 the application of the provisions of paragraph 1 of Article II of the General Agreement to the extent necessary to enable the Government of India to apply the auxiliary duty of customs, as notified in documents L/3934 and L/4007, on items included in Schedule XII - India,

Considering that the Government of India has notified the CONTRACTING PARTIES that, in view of the continuing difficult financial position and the necessity to mobilize resources for meeting essential developmental and other needs, it has decided to continue the levy of the auxiliary duty of customs for a further period of nine months from 1 July 1977,

Noting that the rates of the auxiliary duty of customs and the conditions governing its levy remain unchanged and that the incidence of the auxiliary duty on almost all items in Schedule XII continues to be either nil or 5 per cent,

Noting further the assurances of the Government of India that it will, upon request, promptly enter into consultations with any contracting party which considers that serious damage to its interests is caused or imminently threatened by the auxiliary duty,

The Decision was adopted by postal ballot. There were 44 votes in favour and none against.
