In a communication dated 25 April 1990, the delegation of the United States has notified the restoration of United States Generalized System of Preferences benefits to Panama.