JOINT WORKING GROUP ON IMPORT RESTRICTIONS

Revision of Annexes to Report of Joint Working Group

1. At the meeting of the Council on 29 June 1971, it was decided that the data assembled by the Joint Working Group should be kept up to date (C/M/70). These procedures were reconfirmed by the Council on 26 March 1980 (C/M/139).

2. A revised Consolidated Table of Import Restrictions, replacing the Table in L/5090 and Corr.1, is set out in the annex. It includes information made available to the secretariat up to the date of this document:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th></th>
<th>Page</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>A</td>
<td>Agriculture</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>B</td>
<td>Industry</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

(a) Country coverage

3. The annex covers the restrictions notified for countries consulted by the Joint Working Group as well as, to some extent, the restrictions of dependent territories of these contracting parties.

4. While every effort has been made to ensure the accuracy of the data, the table should not be considered as a comprehensive and exhaustive list of all restrictions maintained by the countries concerned.

5. With regard in particular to South Africa, Australia has submitted the following: "South Africa has retained comprehensive import restrictions despite disinvocation under Article XII. Restrictions apply to:

   (i) A wide range of "general merchandise" (mainly consumer goods and goods capable of being produced in South Africa), based on 1969 import levels.

1/ Table A of the annex is an updated summary of the information contained in MTN/3E/DOC/7 and Addenda 1 to 10 and Corrigenda relating to the individual countries covered by the Joint Working Group. As stated in document L/5202, of 23 October 1981, the Inventory of agricultural non-tariff measures circulated in the MTN/3E/DOC/5-10 and 12 and Addenda-series is currently being revised and will be issued under a new symbol as AG/DOC-series.

2/ The Inventory on Non-Tariff Measures (Industrial Products) has been revised and circulated to contracting parties as MTN/INV/I-V. Numbers in the lower left-hand corner of boxes refer to notifications in this Inventory.
(ii) A range of goods subject to administrative control via import licences issued for specific quantities of goods (see paragraph 4 of the South African Import Licensing Schedule).

A wide range of Australian goods is affected by the import restrictions listed in (i) and (ii) above.

There is also an additional category of imports also subject to South African import licensing even although import licences are issued fairly freely (see paragraph 2 of the South African Import Licensing Schedule)."

(b) Types of restrictions included

6. The annex includes all of the types of measures considered by some members of the Group to constitute import restrictions (see paragraphs 8 and 10 of the report in L/3391/Rev.1), except restrictions maintained on health and sanitary grounds as well as restrictions on products of a purely military character.

(c) Symbols

(i) Restriction type

</tbody>
</table>
L: Licensing (method unspecified)

SUSP: (followed by country abbreviation) - where an import restriction has been suspended pending application of an export restraint by the country named in parenthesis

XR: (followed by country abbreviation) - the country in parenthesis operates an export restraint vis-à-vis the country shown as maintaining the restriction

MP: Minimum price system

SR: Seasonal restriction

R: Restriction (unspecified)

R (East): A restriction (unspecified) applied to most, if not all, of the State-trading countries in Eastern Europe

Q: Quota

Certain other restrictions (e.g. mixing regulations and screen quotas) are mentioned in individual boxes.

(ii) Country and territory symbols

The following country or area symbols are used:

ALA Australia
ARG Argentina
ATA Austria
BEL Belgium
BGL Bangladesh
BRA Brazil
CAN Canada
COL Colombia
CPA Commonwealth Preference Area
CZ Czechoslovakia
EEC European Communities
HUN Hungary
HK Hong Kong
Country or area symbols preceded by a dash (e.g. -UK) indicate that the restriction is applied to imports from countries or areas other than the one(s) named.

1) Liberal imports of items of potential appeal to tourists in Austria.
2) Ethyl alcohol for industrial and technical use (inter alia, alcohol for use in solvents and chemical reactions) is, since 1979, no longer under monopoly. Reference: cf. under 1 below.
3) For Armagnac, whisky, gin and genever an import licence of the Federal Monopoly Administration is granted provided that certain specific conditions are fulfilled. Reference 1/300, Add.14.
4) Under the United States Internal Revenue Code alcohol may not be used free of tax in industrial processes unless it has been denatured in accordance with United States regulations administered by the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms of the Department of the Treasury. The denaturation requirement applies regardless of whether the alcohol was produced in the United States or imported. This requirement is not designed as an import restraint but rather is set up for tax control purposes.

The Government of Austria does not consider this measure as having a restrictive effect.

Restrictions (quotas) on the following tariff positions will be eliminated after a transitional period: ex 31.02 A, B, 31.03, ex 31.05, 44.01 (R (East)), 56,01 (R (East)), 69.01 (R (East)), ex 73.18, ex 73.37, ex 81.08, ex 84.06, ex 84.10, ex 84.14, ex 84.15, ex 84.20, ex 84.46, ex 84.47, ex 85.15 0 11 ex a; ex 90.05.

The present document lists the non-tariff measures applied by Switzerland on imports of products falling within Chapters 25 to 99. According to the products concerned, these measures correspond to one or other of the six categories of objectives listed below:

(a) International conventions
- Treaty on the Non-Proliferation of Nuclear Weapons, of 1 July 1968 (nuclear fuels and radioactive residues);
- Single Convention on Narcotic Drugs, of 30 March 1961 (narcotic drugs);

(b) National security
- Verification of establishment of compulsory stocks (mineral oils and their distillation products; antibiotics; fertilisers);
- Verification of military equipment (certain chemical products; explosives; propellant powders; safety fuses and detonating fuses; certain pyrotechnic articles; specified rockets, instruments, apparatus and vehicles; tanks and armoured motor vehicles and parts thereof; armed aircraft and parts thereof; arms and ammunition and parts thereof).

(c) Administration of measures covered by Article II of the General Agreement
- Health protection (human gammaglobulin, antisera, vaccines and microbial cultures; compost);
- Administration of the alcohol monopoly (certain products with an alcohol content exceeding 75.1 vol.%).

(d) Measures designed to prevent evasion of the regime applicable to products falling within Chapters 1 to 24
- For certain products that can be assimilated to agricultural products, administration of a system for the taking over of similar domestic products (casein, ovalbumin);
- Charging of price supplements on imports of products that can be substituted for products falling within Chapters 1 to 24 subject to a similar regime (certain fodder products).

(e) Surveillance of prices applicable on imports of certain textile products

(f) Verification of use (certain horses)

The characteristics of these measures are described in document LIG/S/5/Add.16.

1 For a more complete coverage of quota restrictions and export restraints please see documentation of Textiles Surveillance Body.

2 The United States does not maintain quantitative restrictions on textiles and apparel other than those in conformity with the arrangement regarding international trade in textiles. All restrictions maintained pursuant to the arrangement have been reported to the Textiles Surveillance Body. The United States maintains quotas on certain primary cotton products that are not covered by the arrangement as noted in footnotes concerning restrictions under 50.01-05 and 06.

3 The European Economic Community does not maintain quantitative restrictions on textiles and apparel other than those in conformity with the arrangement regarding international trade in textiles and with the provisions of GATT and its Protocols. All restrictions maintained pursuant to the arrangement have been reported to the Textiles Surveillance Body.

4 Canada maintains import licensing measures over a range of products identified in GATT Chapters 50-62 to implement negotiated restraint arrangements and unilateral action in conformity with the Arrangement Regarding Trade in Textiles as well as for import surveillance purposes. These measures have been reported to the Textiles Surveillance Body and are identified more particularly in Canada's response to the Questionnaire on Import Licensing Procedures. Products covered include: (a) Textiles: cotton, acrylic, polyester and mixed fibre yarns; cotton, polyester, wool, nylon, broad-woven, coated, double and warped knit fabrics; toilet linens; sheets; pillow cases; household textiles and ropes. (b) Clothing and Handbags: work gloves; outerwear garments, hose, pants, leisure suits and jackets; blouses and ladies shirts; pyjamas and sleepwear; raincoats; sportswear; foundation garments, swimwear, underwear, top coats and overcoats; men's and boy's structured suits and jackets; men's and boy's shirts; sweaters; and handbags.

In the case of Hong Kong, restrictions under this heading are applied on textiles and textile articles not of cotton, m.m.f., or wool. In the view of Hong Kong, restrictions on this and other items are unilateral quotas, imposed by the French authorities without the agreement of the authorities either of the United Kingdom or of Hong Kong.

* The United States Merchant Marine Act of 1920 prohibits foreign-built vessels in coastwise trade of the United States.

* See footnote 1 to heading ex 60.04.

* Vessels (except yachts and pleasure boats) are not subject to the provisions of the tariff schedules of the United States. Accordingly, a classification for such vessels has not been provided in the TSSS. (Current Bureau of Customs Interpretation holds that air-cushion vehicles travelling over water, e.g. hovercraft, are "vessels" within the meaning of the Merchant Marine Act.)

* Import licences issued without limitation of quantity since 1977.

* Telescopic sights and other optical devices for use with firearms deemed to be war equipment.
