1 Communication received on 28 February 1983 from the Mission of the United Kingdom on behalf of the Governments of France, United Kingdom and United States:

On behalf of the Governments of France, the United States of America and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, I have the honour to refer to the communication of 15 November 1982 of the Government of Czechoslovakia concerning the extension of the Agreement on Technical Barriers to Trade done at Geneva on 12 April 1979 to the Western Sectors of Berlin (notification GLI/270 of 22 November 1982).

With regard to the communication referred to above, the three Governments reaffirm that States which are not parties to the Quadripartite Agreement are not competent to comment authoritatively on its provisions.

The three Governments do not consider it necessary, nor do they intend to respond to any further communication on this subject from States which are not parties to the Quadripartite Agreement. This should not be taken to imply any change of the position of the three Governments in this matter.

2 Communication received on 2 March 1983 from the Permanent Mission of the Federal Republic of Germany:

In this connection I have the honour to refer to the letter of 24 February 1983 sent to you by the United Kingdom Mission, Geneva, on behalf of the Governments of France, the United Kingdom and the United States and to state that the Government of the Federal Republic of Germany supports the position set forth in this letter.

The Government of the Federal Republic of Germany wishes to point out that the absence of a response to further communications of a similar nature should not be taken to imply any change of its position in this matter.

E. Agreement on Interpretation and Application of Articles VI, XVI and XXIII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade

- Australia 28 September 1981

The acceptance was accompanied by the following communication:

It is a matter of regret to the Government of Australia that participants in the MTN were unable to develop more effective disciplines on the use of agricultural export subsidies. The Agreement on the Interpretation and Application of Articles VI, XVI and XXIII of the GATT is heavily imbalanced as between its provisions relating to agricultural and to industrial products.

1 On 17 December 1979 Switzerland accepted the Agreement, without prejudice to acceptance of lists not yet approved.
2 On 17 December 1979 the United States accepted the Agreement, subject to satisfactory completion of negotiations on entity coverage under the Agreement.
Notwithstanding the disappointing result, the Government of Australia has decided to accept the Agreement on the expectation that within a reasonable time GATT contracting parties will develop disciplines relating to agricultural export subsidies which are substantially equivalent to those adopted in respect of export subsidies on products other than certain primary products (as defined in the Agreement).

In respect of Australian measures which may exist within the purview of the illustrative list at the time of acceptance by the Government of Australia of the Agreement, and where major practical difficulties stand in the way of the Government of Australia bringing such measures promptly into conformity with the Agreement, the Government of Australia will, without prejudice to the rights of other signatories under the General Agreement or this Agreement, examine methods of bringing these measures into conformity within a reasonable time.

In any event the Government of Australia will be reviewing its position in relation to the Agreement in the light of experience.

  15 September 1981

The acceptance was accompanied by the following communication:
In accepting the Agreement the Government of New Zealand reserves its position with respect to the application of the provisions of Article 19(5)(a), to the extent that the Government of New Zealand shall, without prejudice to the rights and obligations of other signatories under the GATT or the Agreement, take all necessary steps of a general or particular character, to ensure that the laws, regulations and administrative procedures relating to the following export incentive schemes shall be brought into conformity with the provisions of the Agreement within a reasonable period of time:

(I) export market development taxation incentive;

(II) export programme grants scheme;

(III) export manufacturing investment allowance;

(IV) new markets increased exports taxation incentive;

(V) new market development grant;

(VI) export suspensory loans;

(VII) exemption from sales tax of some machinery for export production.

In accordance with the special relationships which exist between New Zealand and the Cook Islands and between New Zealand and Niue, there have been consultations regarding the Agreement between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of the Cook Islands and between the Government of New Zealand and the Government of Niue. Pursuant to Article 19(2)(d) of the Agreement acceptance of the Government of New Zealand shall not extend the application of the provision of the Agreement to the Cook Islands and Niue.

- Norway (subject to acceptance) 17 December 1979
- Acceptance 28 December 1979
- Pakistan 30 April 1980
- Spain

The acceptance was accompanied by the following communication:

With respect to the provisions of paragraph 2, Article 9 of the Agreement on Interpretation and Application of Articles VI, XVI and XXIII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade (the Subsidies Code), and to practices outlined in the annex to the Code, the Government of Spain has initiated the process of bringing its laws, regulations and administrative procedures into conformity with the provisions of the Code.

The Government of Spain has already taken steps in this direction and intends to modify further its fiscal system, introducing the value added tax in place of the current turnover tax. This important change in the Spanish fiscal system, and the method of its application, will require a transition period in order for the Government of Spain to adapt its laws, regulations and administrative procedures to the new fiscal system.

During this period of transition, the Government of Spain will introduce no new export incentive schemes, the use of which is proscribed by the Code. Neither will the Government of Spain expand or increase existing schemes which may be inconsistent with the Code.

The Government of Spain, therefore, in accepting the Code, reserves its position on the application of the provisions of paragraph 5(a), Article 19, inasmuch as, without prejudice to the rights and obligations of any signatories under the General Agreement or the Code, the Government of Spain will undertake all the necessary steps in order to bring its laws, regulations and administrative procedures into conformity with the provisions of the Code within a reasonable period of time, and in no case later than 31 December 1984.

H. Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade

- Argentina (subject to ratification) 30 September 1980
  The acceptance was accompanied by the following communication:

In connection with Argentina's acceptance, subject to ratification, of the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and the Protocol thereto, I have the honour to advise you that:
(a) In accordance with paragraph 4 of the Protocol to the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the Government of Argentina makes the following reservation:

The Government of Argentina reserves the right to provide that the relevant provision of Article 4 of the Agreement shall apply only when the customs authorities agree to the request to reverse the order of Articles 5 and 6.

(b) In accordance with paragraph 5 of the Protocol to the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the Government of Argentina makes the following reservations:

The Government of Argentina reserves the right to provide that Article 5.2 of the Agreement shall be applied in accordance with the provisions of the relevant note thereto whether or not the importer so requests.

(c) In accordance with Article 21 of the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement, the Government of Argentina will delay application of all the provisions of that Agreement until 1 January 1982, and

(d) In accordance with Article 21 of the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, the Government of Argentina will delay application of the computed-value method envisaged in Articles 1 and 6 for an additional period of three years as from the date of application of all other provisions by Argentina.

In addition, I have the honour to advise you that the minimum official c.i.f. values still in effect in Argentina would no longer be in existence when Argentina begins to apply the Agreement. Those values would be eliminated or replaced, where necessary, by minimum specific duties.

On 14 August 1981 the following communication was received from the Government of Argentina:

With reference to my letter of 30 September 1980 regarding acceptance by Argentina, subject to ratification, of the Agreement on Implementation of Article VII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade and the Protocol thereto, I have the honour to advise you that, in connection with paragraph (c) of the said letter, and due to unforeseen circumstances, the Government of the Argentine Republic has decided to delay application of the Agreement and the Protocol until 1 January 1986, in pursuance of Article 21:1. This delay will also have the effect of maintaining in force the minimum c.i.f. import values.

Consequently, and in pursuance of Article 21:2 of the Agreement, the Government of the Argentine Republic will delay application of the valuation method described in Article 1:2(b)(iii) and 6 for an additional period of three years as from the date on which Argentina has brought into application all the other provisions of the Agreement.

The Government of Canada reserves its position with regard to the obligations in Article 2 pending the completion of domestic legislative procedures. The Government of Canada will, however, afford duty-free treatment equivalent to that provided for in Article 2 as of 1 January 1980, and will promptly pursue completion of the necessary domestic legislative procedures. This reservation will be withdrawn when these procedures will have been completed.
On 18 August 1981 the following notification of withdrawal of reservation was received from the Government of Canada:

Canada accepted the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft on 1 January 1980, subject to a reservation concerning the provisions of Article 2 of the Agreement pending passage of the appropriate legislation in Canada. I can now inform you that the necessary legislation has recently been enacted. Accordingly, Canada wishes formally to withdraw the reservation it entered at the time that it accepted the Agreement on Trade in Civil Aircraft. The Agreement entered into force for Canada on 1 January 1980 and, as previously indicated, the tariff provisions of the Agreement have been applied de facto since that date.
