ARTICLE XIX - ACTION BY THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES

Certain Semi-Processed Red Fruits

Extension

The following communication, dated 25 April 1991, has been received from the Permanent Delegation of the European Communities.

I have the honour to refer to the communication of the Commission of the European Communities dated 22 February 1991 and reproduced in document L/6820 of 5 March 1991, and to advise you, for the information of the contracting parties, that by Regulation (EEC) No. 810/91 of 27 March 1991, the Commission of the European Communities has extended its action under Article XIX in respect of imports of certain semi-processed red fruits. Attached hereto is a copy of the Regulation extending Regulation (EEC) No. 3797/90 of 21 December 1990 until 31 July 1991.

These measures provide for the extension of the application of a countervailing charge to be levied on imports in certain conditions. The countervailing charge is not levied on products originating in and coming from countries which observe the minimum prices indicated in Regulation (EEC) No. 3797/90. The objective of this measure is to continue to avoid imports at abnormally low prices which cause serious disposal problems for Community production.
COMMISSION REGULATION (EEC) No. 810/91
of 27 March 1991

Amending Regulation (EEC) No. 3797/90 on Protective Measures Applicable to Imports of Certain Semi-Processed Red Fruits Originating in Poland and Yugoslavia

THE COMMISSION OF THE EUROPEAN COMMUNITIES,

Having regard to the Treaty establishing the European Economic Community,

Having regard to Council Regulation (EEC) No. 426/86 of 24 February 1986 on the common organization of the market in products processed from fruit and vegetables, as last amended by Regulation (EEC) No. 2201/90, and in particular Article 18, paragraph 2 thereof;

Whereas Council Regulation (EEC) No. 521/77 lays down detailed rules for applying protective measures in the market in products processed from fruit and vegetables;

Whereas Article 5 of Commission Regulation (EEC) No. 3797/90, as amended by Regulation (EEC) No. 419/91, provides that the Regulation is to apply until 31 March 1991;

Whereas major quantities of the products in question are still available in Poland and in Yugoslavia; whereas, from 1 April 1991, unless there is an agreement with the exporting countries on compliance with a free-at-frontier price for forthcoming months, the products will be imported into the Community in major quantities and at fairly low prices; whereas, under the circumstances, the Community market would be threatened with disturbance which would have a negative impact on the sale of Community products from the new harvest; whereas that situation is likely to jeopardize the objectives of Article 39 of the Treaty; whereas the requirement for a minimum import price and countervailing charges on products not complying with that price, should accordingly be maintained for a sufficiently lengthy period to forestall such negative effects,

HAS ADOPTED THIS REGULATION:

Article 1

In Article 5 of Regulation (EEC) No. 3797/90, the date "31 March 1991" is hereby replace by "31 July 1991".

Article 2

This Regulation shall enter into force on the day of its publication in the Official Journal of the European Communities.

This Regulation shall be binding in its entirety and directly applicable in all Member States.

For the Commission
Ray MAC SHARRY
Member of the Commission
