RELAXATION OF IMPORT RESTRICTIONS
BY SOUTHERN RHODESIA

The Government of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland has transmitted copies of a table showing by classes of goods and items the currency allocations for the Import Control Period XII (January-June 1954). With this document one copy (in English) is being sent to each contracting party.

In submitting the table, the Government has stated as follows:

"The Government's policy of progressive relaxation has been continued for Period XII by further derestrictions, by increased currency allocations and by the provision of a currency quota for articles which were previously on the Prohibited List.

"The main items so affected are as follows:

"(a) New Derestrictions

Olive Oil, Glue, Flock for Blanket Manufacture, Certain Yarns for Industry, Ball and Roller Bearings, Aluminium ingot, spares for mining, agricultural and industrial machinery, rough sawn marble, abrasives (excluding emery paper), wallboard, hardboard, empty boxes and shooks and empty barrels and casks.

"(b) New Currency Allocations (Items previously prohibited.)

Tinned fish, cigars, cotton and rayon piece goods for manufacturers, hats and caps, felt hoods, and beads.

"(c) Increased Currency Allocations

Wheat, dried milk, condensed milk, blankets and rugs, commercial motor vehicles, tools, insecticides, plywood, watches and parts, musical instruments, photographic equipment.

"It should be noted that Import Permits are still required for commodities which appear on the unrestricted list, but these will be issued on request, subject to scrutiny only, for any currency area and without restriction to a currency allocation ceiling."
