MARKS OF ORIGIN

Corrigendum

In paragraph 2 of the suggestion of the Commission on Formalities in International Trade of the International Chamber of Commerce, the word "of" in the third line should be replaced by "or" so as to read:

"2. In this spirit, the Commission recommends that it be laid down as a general principle that marks of origin should not be required for production or capital goods, the origin of which is usually known to the buyer."

* English only