The Chairman of the informal group of less-developed countries in GATT has the honour to inform the delegations of less-developed countries that the Director-General wishes to meet representatives of these delegations at 10 a.m. on Thursday, 10 February 1966, in his office at Villa Le Bocage. The Chairman very much hopes that delegations from less-developed countries will find it possible to accept the kind invitation of the Director-General.