Dear Sir,

New Export Promotion Training Course
Offered by the United Kingdom

We sent all interested countries a circular dated 22 September inviting them to nominate trainees for the new export promotion training course offered by the United Kingdom.

We are writing to you again on this subject to remind you that nominations should reach us as quickly as possible and in any event not later than 20 December 1966, so that we may be in a position to make the necessary arrangements with the British Government. We shall be grateful if your Government could give early attention to this matter, so that full use may be made of the generous offer of the United Kingdom.

The second reason for our writing to you is to make available to you the additional information in the attached circular which, we gather from questions asked of us by interested countries, would be helpful.

We might mention in this connexion that the original circular of 22 September and this circular were addressed to all liaison offices in the capitals of the developing countries. Copies were sent to the Permanent Representatives to the GATT in Geneva or elsewhere in Europe.

I regret that this circular is being transmitted in English to all countries for the sake of speed. The French and Spanish versions will be sent to French and Spanish-speaking countries as soon as possible.

We do hope that you will be able to let us have a reply very soon and that you will be in a position to nominate qualified candidates.

Yours truly,

H.L. Jacobson
Director of the Centre
