The Director-General to the CONTRACTING PARTIES to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade presents his compliments to the Government of and has the honour to refer to his letter dated 3 November 1969, on the subject of the trade negotiations between developing countries to be carried out under the auspices of GATT, and to forward herewith, for information:

(a) a GATT secretariat paper on points relating to rules and procedures for the negotiations which might require consideration by the Trade Negotiations Committee for Developing Countries; and

(b) a set of suggestions in regard to the ground rules presented by some delegations participating in the negotiations, for consideration by the Trade Negotiations Committee, which these delegations have requested should be brought to the attention of developing countries, which, as yet, have not taken part in the work of the Committee.

If the Government of has any comments or suggestions to make in regard to the annexed set of draft rules, the Director-General will be glad to bring these to the attention of the Trade Negotiations Committee in the course of their further deliberations on this subject.

The Director-General avails himself of this opportunity to express to the Government of the assurances of his highest consideration.
