15 December 1969

To: Members of the Trade Negotiations Committee of Developing Countries

From: Acting Director, Development Division, GATT

The secretariat intends to issue in one volume the studies prepared so far on the import régimes of the countries participating in the Trade Negotiations Among Developing Countries. The studies, upon approval by the respective delegations, have been issued separately, and so far only in English, in the INT/- series.

The text of the volume would be preceded by the following explanatory note:

"The notes on import régimes, contained in this volume, have been prepared at the suggestion of delegations participating in the trade negotiations among developing countries conducted under the auspices of GATT.

"Notes on the following twenty-one countries are included:

Argentina, Brazil, Ceylon, Chile, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, Greece, India, Iraq, Israel, the Republic of Korea, Mexico, Pakistan, Peru, Philippines, Spain, Turkey, United Arab Republic, Uruguay, Venezuela, Yugoslavia.

"The material used has been drawn from official publications and statistics of the countries concerned, from GATT documents and publications of several other international organizations, and from various other sources.

"The notes are issued in one volume for the convenience of the participants to the negotiations. It is not an official document. Furthermore, the designations employed and the presentation of the material do not imply an expression of opinion as regards the status of any country. On particular points requiring clarification or confirmation guidance should be sought from the delegations concerned."

Delegations having comments on the suggested text of the explanatory note are invited to communicate them in writing or by telephone to Development Division, GATT (Tel. 34 60 11, ext. 4460 or 4414) by 23 December 1969.

Let/609
To: Members of the Trade Negotiations Committee of Developing Countries

From: Acting Director, Development Division, GATT

The secretariat intends to issue in one volume the studies prepared so far on the import régimes of the countries participating in the Trade Negotiations Among Developing Countries. The studies, upon approval by the respective delegations, have been issued separately, and so far only in English, in the INT/- series.

The text of the volume would be preceded by the following explanatory note:

"The notes on import régimes, contained in this volume, have been prepared at the suggestion of delegations participating in the trade negotiations among developing countries conducted under the auspices of GATT.

Notes on the following twenty-one countries are included: Argentina, Brazil, Ceylon, Chile, Colombia, the Dominican Republic, Greece, India, Iraq, Israel, the Republic of Korea, Mexico, Pakistan, Peru, Philippines, Spain, Turkey, United Arab Republic, Uruguay, Venezuela, Yugoslavia.

The material used has been drawn from official publications and statistics of the countries concerned, from GATT documents and publications of several other international organizations, and from various other sources.

The notes are issued in one volume for the convenience of the participants to the negotiations. It is not an official document. Furthermore, the designations employed and the presentation of the material do not imply an expression of opinion as regards the status of any country. On particular points requiring clarification or confirmation guidance should be sought from the delegations concerned."

Delegations having comments on the suggested text of the explanatory note are invited to communicate them in writing or by telephone to Development Division, GATT (Tel. 34 60 11, ext. 4460 or 4414) by 23 December 1969.

Let/609