DECLARATION EXTENDING THE STANDSTILL PROVISIONS OF ARTICLE XVI: 4
OF THE GENERAL AGREEMENT ON TARIFFS AND TRADE
DONE AT GENEVA ON 30 NOVEMBER 1957

SIGNATURES

Sir,

I have the honour to inform you that the Declaration Extending the Standstill Provisions of Article XVI: 4 of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, done at Geneva on 30 November 1957, was signed by the Plenipotentiaries of the following Governments on the dates indicated:

Austria 28 October 1958
Ceylon 17 October 1958
Federation of Malaya 14 October 1958
Finland 21 November 1958
Haiti 30 October 1958
Indonesia 30 October 1958
Italy 1 December 1958
Luxemburg 17 October 1958
Kingdom of the Netherlands 16 December 1958
United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland 21 November 1958
United States of America 21 November 1958

The signature by the Plenipotentiary of the United States of America was accompanied by the following statement:

With the understanding that this Declaration shall not prevent the United States, as part of its subsidization of exports of a primary product, from making a payment on an exported processed product (not itself a primary product), which has been produced from such primary product, if such payment is essentially limited to the amount of the subsidy which would have been payable on the quantity of such primary product, if exported in primary form, consumed in the production of the processed product.

This communication is made in accordance with paragraph 5 of the Declaration.

Accept, Sir, the renewed assurances of my highest consideration.

E. Wyndham White,
Executive Secretary.
