By letter dated 17 September 1959 the Government of the Federation of Rhodesia and Nyasaland has transmitted the following information on the additional liberalization of dollar imports which came into effect on 11 September:

"On 11 September 1959, the Federal Government removed or diminished restrictions on a further range of imports originating in the dollar area, as follows:

(1) The half-yearly quota of £10,000 for ladies' stockings (referred to on page 4 of the Basic Document and on page 10, paragraph 10(i)(c) of Annex 1 to the document) was increased to £20,000 and extended to cover imports of ladies' foundation garments (previously prohibited).

(2) Stoves, washing machines and refrigerators of dollar area origin were placed on open general licence and the restricted quota (referred to on page 4 and 10 of the Basic Document) for these goods accordingly no longer exists.

(3) The unrestricted import of following other goods of dollar area origin (previously prohibited) was permitted under open general licence: hair clippers and scissors (not gold or silver, nor gold plated); cocoa in various forms; chocolate especially prepared for drinking; a range of textile materials, gauze etc., used in connexion with machinery; padded quilts; aeroplanes and other aircraft; firearms; hardware including kitchenware and appliances, n.e.e., but excluding locks of all kinds, n.e.e.; lamps and lampware; refrigerators, having a capacity of less than fourteen cubic feet; stoves, etc., n.e.e.; electrical cooking and heating appliances, including kettles and irons, not industrial; playing cards; carbon, tracing wall and plain blotting paper and other paper, n.e.e.; band instruments, the property of air, military, naval or police bands and hat and cap hoods and shapes.

"The attached copy of the Control of Goods (Import) Open General Licence of 1959, published as Federal Government Notice No. 182 of 1959 dated 10 July 1959 has been amended to take account of these changes (which were published in Federal Government Notice No. 237 of 1959, dated 11 September) and should be substituted for Annex II of the Basic Document MT(59)96/Rev. 1 which shows the superceded text of the Open General Licence published in Federal Government Notice No. 5 of 1959 on 2 January 1959."
ANNEX II

FEDERAL GOVERNMENT NOTICE NO. 182 OF 1959 AS AMENDED
BY FEDERAL GOVERNMENT NOTICES NO. 202 AND 237 OF 1959

Control of Goods (Import) Open General Licence, 1959 as amended to 11 September 1959

IN the exercise of the powers conferred by section 3 of the Control of Goods (Import and Export) (Commerce) Order, 1958, published in Federal Government Notice No. 309 of 1958, the Minister of Commerce and Industry hereby issues the following open general import licence:

1. This licence may be cited as the Control of Goods (Import) Open General Licence, 1959.

2. Subject to the provisions of this licence and of any other law, including a Territorial law, the import into the Federation by any person is hereby authorized of:

(a) those goods which are listed in the First Schedule;

(b) all goods which are the product or manufacture of any of those territories, States or their dependencies which are specified in the Second Schedule; and

(c) all goods which are the product of manufacture of any of those territories, States or their dependencies which are specified in Part I of the Third Schedule, other than those listed in the first column of Part II of that Schedule and classified in accordance with the item of the customs tariff specified opposite thereto in the second column of Part II of that Schedule.

3. Save in respect of parts of articles which are specifically enumerated in the customs tariff, integral parts of an article listed in the first column of Part II of the Third Schedule which are imported as spare parts or for replacements or for completion of the article in the Federation shall, for the purposes of this licence, be treated in the same way as such article.

4. This licence does not authorize the import into the Federation of any goods listed in the Second Schedule to the Control of Goods (Import and Export) (Commerce) Order, 1959, published in Federal Government Notice No. 309 of 1958.
