SCHEDULE I - AUSTRALIA

Authority to re-negotiate under Article XXVIII:4

At its meeting of 20 April 1960 the Intersessional Committee, pursuant to requests contained in documents GATT/AIR/190(SECRET) and GATT/AIR/191(SECRET), granted authority to the Government of Australia (IC/SR.47) to enter into renegotiations concerning the following items in Schedule I - Australia:

Part I - Most-Favoured-Nation Tariff

140 (C) Copper, viz: angles, bars, etc. per lb. 6d. and ad valorem 45 per cent, subject to a reduction by an amount per ton calculated by multiplying the determined price of copper at the date of exportation of the goods by 0.55 (British preferential tariff and intermediate tariff), 0.6875 (General tariff).

For the purposes of this sub-item the determined price of copper shall be the weekly average, as determined by the Minister, of the London Metal Exchange quotations for one ton of electrolytic copper wire bars.

255 (C) (2) Gelatine, viz. - all other kinds - per lb. ld.
or ad valorem 17\(\frac{1}{2}\) per cent whichever rate returns the higher duty.

Import statistics relating to the above items are found in documents GATT/AIR/190(SECRET), GATT/AIR/191(SECRET) and SECRET/113.

In view of the desire of the Australian Government to conclude these renegotiations as rapidly as possible, any contracting party wishing to claim a "principal supplying interest" or a "substantial interest" in the sense of Article XXVIII should communicate with the Government of Australia without delay and inform the Executive Secretary. Any such claim, if recognized by Australia, will be deemed to be a determination by the CONTRACTING PARTIES under the terms of Article XXVIII:1. If no agreement can be reached on the question of interest, the matter should be referred to the Intersessional Committee or the CONTRACTING PARTIES.

1 The attention of contracting parties is drawn to an error in the statistics relating to copper imports (GATT/AIR/191(SECRET), page 2). The figures opposite Switzerland should relate to the United States. The figures for Switzerland should be:
