Page 7, paragraph 12:
Change first part of last sentence to read as follows:
"The overriding consideration in the negotiation of an agreement is the desire to find a solution to the trade and payments problems which are present; and in these . . . ."

Page 9, paragraph 18:
Delete last part of third sentence reading as follows:
"... while continuing to discriminate against imports from non-members."

Same paragraph
Change last sentence to read as follows:
"This removal of restrictions has been made possible through the existence of the Intra-European Payments Scheme which has provided for extra financial resources."