LIST A

I. Customs duties

(1) An English text of the Customs Law, the Customs Tariff Law, and the regulations related thereto (including those relating to the handling of passengers' personal effects, household effects incidental to removal of residence, and mails as well as the duty-exemption treatment for diplomatic officials.).

(2) Explanation of the customs-clearing formalities (declaration, inspection, assessment, etc.).

(3) An English text of the laws, regulations and orders concerning the organization, authority and functions of the Central Customs Office and other customs agencies.

(4) Main outline of the expected revision of the Customs Law.

II. Import and export procedures

(1) An English text of the basic laws, regulations and orders concerning the control of import and export (including the Law for the Establishment of Foreign Trade Organizations, and the matters relating to the structure and function of the Organizations).

(2) Method of drawing up the import and export programme, the content of the programme (classified by, for instance, areas, countries, commodities, settlement currencies, etc.), and the scope of discretion which may be exercised by the Foreign Trade Organizations under the programme as well as their obligations.

III. Foreign exchange control system

(1) Whether Poland has a foreign exchange budget system for imports (especially, its relationship to II(2)).

(2) Method of settling accounts inside the Rouble bloc (especially, method by multilateral settlement).

(3) Countries outside the Rouble bloc with which clearing system is applied, and the basic form of such system.

(4) If standard method of settlement by currencies is adopted, the stipulations of such methods.
IV. Foreign trade statistics

(1) Statistics of foreign trade.

(2) Methods of preparing statistics, especially of computing the trade values. How the values of trade inside the Rouble bloc and that of trade with Western countries are adjusted?

V. Relationship of the import and export prices to the domestic prices

(1) Examples of the import and export prices of major items as compared with their domestic prices.

(2) Final disposal of margin accruing from the difference between the import price and the domestic selling price.

(3) Method of adjusting the difference between the export price and the production cost.

(4) If export promotion measures are in effect, the content thereof.