The representative of Japan expressed the hope that full GATT relationship would be established between Australia and Japan in the near future. He requested the delegation for Australia to transmit this desire of the Japanese Government to the Government of Australia. The representative of Australia replied that the request would be conveyed to the attention of his Government.