DRAFT SUMMARY AND CONCLUSIONS

Corrigendum

Par. 7: The last sentence should read as follows:

Some delegations expressed the hope that the tariff benefits received in other markets by countries losing preferences would ensure that the Kennedy Round makes a positive contribution to their economic growth and export earnings.

Par. 8: The last but one sentence should read as follows:

At the same time it noted that there was a wide area over which contracting parties could take individual action to reduce or eliminate tariff barriers on tropical products in the common interest of developing countries and without harm to the interest of any particular developing country.

Par. 12: Replace the last two sentences by the following:

It will continue to give support to the activities of other international organizations in this field including the conclusion of international commodity agreements.

Par. 23: In the last but one line remove the word "up".