PROPOSAL BY THE POLISH PEOPLE'S REPUBLIC

If the members of the Working Party on Poultry were to reach an agreement on solutions to be adopted in the immediate future with respect to the problem of the world market for this product, the contribution by the Polish People's Republic to that agreement could take the form of an undertaking not to export in the year 1968 an overall tonnage of poultry in excess of that exported in the course of 1967.