Draft Decision

Considering that the CONTRACTING PARTIES, by Decision of 14 November 1968, agreed that the Governments of India, the United Arab Republic and Yugoslavia (hereinafter referred to as the "participating States") may implement, subject to specified conditions and procedures, the Trade Expansion and Economic Co-operation Agreement (hereinafter referred to as the "Agreement"), dated 23 December 1967, and effective 1 April 1968;

Considering further that the participating States have notified the CONTRACTING PARTIES that they have signed a Protocol amending the Trade Expansion and Economic Co-operation Agreement and constituting an integral part thereof (hereinafter referred to as the "Protocol"), dated 16 July 1969, and effective 1 October 1969, by the addition of a number of items to the list of products covered by the Agreement;

Bearing in mind that the Trade Negotiations Committee of Developing Countries is preparing trade negotiations with the aim of expanding trade between developing countries, and that this Committee has not yet finished its preparation for the trade negotiations between developing countries, and that the participating States have reiterated their willingness to seek the extension of the concessions embodied in the Agreement, as amended by the Protocol, to all other developing countries by appropriate negotiations and to make their best endeavours to integrate these concessions within the framework of multilateral arrangements elaborated within the Trade Negotiations Committee of Developing Countries which will be reported to the CONTRACTING PARTIES for their consideration in due course;
Noting that the participating States have reiterated their readiness to consult with any contracting party which considers that the operation of the Agreement as amended by the Protocol is impeding the attainment of any benefit which should accrue to it under the General Agreement or is adversely affecting its trade, and to report to the CONTRACTING PARTIES concerning developments under the Agreement.

The CONTRACTING PARTIES decide:

1. That notwithstanding the provisions of Article I:1 of the General Agreement the participating States may continue to implement the Agreement as amended by the Protocol until 31 March 1973 subject to the following conditions and procedures:

   (a) The participating States shall consult with any contracting party which considers that the operation of this Agreement is impeding the attainment of any benefit which should accrue to it under the General Agreement or is adversely affecting its trade.

   (b) The participating States shall notify any proposed modification in the scope or provisions of the Agreement. They shall promptly consult, with a view to arriving at a mutually acceptable settlement, with any contracting party which considers that any proposed modification threatens substantial injury to its trade with participating States. Should agreement not be reached in such consultation, the question of such threat may be considered by the CONTRACTING PARTIES. Participating States may take such action, if, within thirty days after the notification no contracting party has requested consultation or if it is agreed by the contracting party requesting consultation or by the CONTRACTING PARTIES, as the case may be, that no such threat exists. If, however, the CONTRACTING PARTIES find that such threat exists, the participating States shall not take such action but may take other action which conforms with any recommendation made by the CONTRACTING PARTIES.
(c) On the basis of a report by the participating States on the operation of the Agreement as amended by the Protocol, this Decision shall be reviewed at the twenty-seventh session of the CONTRACTING PARTIES with a view to deciding on its extension, modification or termination, as may be appropriate, subject to annual review by the CONTRACTING PARTIES taking account in particular of any multilateral arrangements resulting from the negotiations conducted within the framework of the Trade Negotiations Committee of Developing Countries and the progress made in integrating the concessions embodied in the Agreement within any such arrangements.

2. That this Decision shall not be construed as affecting any right of any contracting party under any provision of the General Agreement.
