The third sentence and first line of the fourth sentence of the second paragraph of Sir Claude COREA's (Ceylon) remarks should read as follows:

"In Ceylon there was no discrimination between indigenous and foreign industries established in Ceylon. It might be true that protection in some countries led to a slightly higher price of imports, but ...".