The statement by the representative of the United States should read:

"Mr. ADAIR (United States) associated himself with the remarks of the Canadian representative concerning the co-operation received from the United Nations Technical Assistance Administration. He recognized that advantages could be derived from accepting candidates from non-GATT countries, provided that, as in the past, priority was given to those from contracting parties."