Item 38: Insert in the eighth line after the words "...implement their schemes." the following sentences:

"The Generalized System of Preferences meant however only new possibilities for increased exports. Positive results would to a great extent depend on action by the developing countries themselves."