Dear Mr. Wurth,

With reference to your letter of 31 July 1980, and further to our former notifications with respect to Article 2 of the MFA, we wish to draw your attention to the following information which was also transmitted today as additional general information, in the context of the work of the textile committee on adjustment measures (GATT/AIR/1611 2 (c)).

The liberalisation policy currently applies to textiles imports in the normal course of trade i.e. to products of regular imported by authorised importers. To date, about 1100 firms have been recognised and approved as authorised importers of textiles.

Textiles (except fabrics) are required to be labelled on importation providing full information accessible to the consumer. The same labelling requirement is applied to domestic products.

Yours sincerely,

Michael Shaton
First Secretary
(Economic Affairs)
