dear mr. chairman:

i have the pleasure to request to the textiles surveillance body, pursuant to article 3, paragraph 5, and article 11 of the arrangement regarding international trade in textiles (hereinafter 'the arrangement'), to review and consider actions taken by the united states of america restraining imports of certain textile products from the republic of maldives and to make recommendations to the united states and to the maldives x

it is further requested that this matter be considered within thirty days and that the participation of the republic of maldives and the united states be invited, as provided in the arrangement x on september 29, 1932 the united states took unilateral action restraining imports from the republic of maldives in category +6, women's, girls' and infants' sweaters of wool at a level of 15,210 dozen for the twelve month period commencing september 29, 1932.

on december 26, 1932 the united states took unilateral action restraining imports from the republic of maldives in category +5, men's and boys' sweaters of wool for the twelve month period commencing december 26, 1932 at a level of 12,755 dozen at the time of these actions the united states informed the republic of maldives that it was according the republic of maldives the same treatment it would have received were it a member of the arrangement. subsequently on 19 (day) of april, 1963 the republic of maldives accepted the arrangement as a member of gatt pursuant to article 13, paragraph 1.

The Republic of Maldives and the United States held bilateral negotiations concerning these restraints on three occasions: December 2-3, 1982 in Washington, D.C.; February 12-13, 1983 in Colombo; and May 31-June 1, 1983 Washington, D.C. These negotiations failed to produce a mutually agreed solution.

The Republic of Maldives considers the actions of the United States, and its position in bilateral negotiations, to be inconsistent with the arrangement, particularly articles 1, 3, 4, 5 and 6 thereof, and with the protocol extending the arrangement regarding international trade in textiles, particularly paragraphs 2, 7, 8 and 12 thereof.

The Republic of Maldives will submit to the Textiles Surveillance Body at the time this matter is considered, a detailed explanation of its position.

The Republic of Maldives is prepared to send a representative to Geneva at such time that the Textiles Surveillance Body will consider this matter and would be pleased to consult with the Chairman regarding an appropriate time convenient to the Textiles Surveillance Body, the United States and the Republic of Maldives.

There is urgency to this matter in view of the extended period of consultations and the commercial difficulties being experienced in view of the seasonal nature of the trade. We would suggest a date in late June or the first part of July at the latest.

With assurances of my highest consideration,

I.H. Zaki
