Attached is a notification received from the United States concerning a unilateral measure taken under the provisions of Article 3:5, in which imports of women's, girls' and infants' wool sweaters (Category 446) produced or manufactured in the Dominican Republic have been placed under restraint for the period 31 January 1984 to 30 January 1985.

The Honorable
Ambassador Marcelo Raffaelli,
Chairman, Textiles Surveillance Board
GATT
154 rue de Lausanne
CH-1211 Geneva 21

Dear Mr. Chairman:

Further to my letter of February 12 and my oral notification last week, I am instructed by my government to notify the TSB that the United States has, for the period beginning on January 31, 1984 and ending on January 30, 1985, established a limit on imports from the Dominican Republic of 19,550 dozen for women's girls' and infants' wool sweaters (category 446) produced or manufactured in the Dominican Republic. The effective date of the establishment of this limit was April 18, 1984.

Although the request for consultations was made prior to the Dominican Republic's acceptance of the Arrangement as extended by the 1981 protocol, it is the U.S. view that the restraint resulting from this request should be considered as an action pursuant to Article 3 of the Arrangement. The detailed factual statement which accompanied the original request for consultations is attached.

As I indicated in my discussion with you, the United States Government remains willing to resume consultations on this category at any mutually convenient date.

Sincerely,

Robert E. Shepherd
Minister-Counselor

Attachment (as stated)
I have the honor to refer to the arrangement regarding international trade in textiles, with annexes, done at Geneva on December 23, 1973 and extended by protocols adopted respectively on December 14, 1977, and December 22, 1981, at Geneva (the arrangement). During recent "Cycles," my government has noted a sharp rise in imports of wool sweaters for women, girls and infants (category 446) from the Dominican Republic. During the year ending November 1963 the United States imported 26,254 dozen sweaters in this category from the Dominican Republic, an increase of 182 percent over the same period one year earlier.

Women's, girls' and infants' wool sweaters are a sensitive apparel product in the United States. After careful review, the government of the United States has concluded that imports from the Dominican Republic in this category have contributed to the disruption or threat of disruption of the market in the United States. A statement of the reasons and justification for this conclusion, with current data, is enclosed with this note. Accordingly, the government of the United States requests consultations with the government of the Dominican Republic on category 446 with a view toward discussing the setting of an appropriate level of restraint on exports of these products from the Dominican Republic to the United States.

The government of the United States looks forward to reaching a mutually satisfactory solution to this matter within sixty days, or as soon as it is possible to hold consultations. The government of the United States, however, reserves its right under the arrangement to restrain imports of women's, girls' and infants' wool sweaters produced in the Dominican Republic and exported to the United States during the twelve-month period beginning with the date of receipt of this request to a level not less than the level of United States' imports of these products from the Dominican Republic during the period November 1, 1962 to October 31, 1963, i.e., 19,550 dozen.

My government would appreciate the views of the government of the Dominican Republic with respect to the situation pertaining to exports in category 446 to the United States.

(Complimentary closing)

Enclosure:

As stated.

Market Statement: Category 446 Women's, Girls' and Infants' Wool Sweaters

U.S. Imports of Category 446 from the Dominican Republic were 29,725 dozen during January-November 1983, up 176.6 percent from the 9,945 dozen imported a year earlier. This sharp and substantial increase of imports is in a market sector already adversely affected by imports. These imports from the Dominican Republic are imported at duty-paid values below the U.S. producer prices for comparable sweaters.

DOMESTIC PRODUCTION OF CATEGORY 446 HAS BEEN SEVERELY AFFECTED BY IMPORTS FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS. DOMESTIC PRODUCTION HAS REMAINED BELOW IMPORTS FOR A DECADE. THE RATIO OF IMPORTS TO DOMESTIC PRODUCTION WAS 252.7 IN 1982 AND WILL BE HIGHER IN 1993 DUE TO THE SUBSTANTIAL INCREASE IN IMPORTS.

APPROXIMATELY 92 PERCENT OF THE CATEGORY 446 IMPORTS FROM THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC WERE ENTERED UNDER TSUSA NO. 257.6571 — WOMEN'S WOOL SWEATERS. THE DUTY-PAID VALUES OF THESE IMPORTS FROM THE DOMINICAN REPUBLIC ARE BELOW THE S. PRODUCER PRICES FOR COMPARABLE SWEATERS.
