agreement was concluded having regard to the minimum viable production provisions of the Arrangement, Korea's share of imports of most of the products under restraint was small, and unlikely to cause damage to minimum viable production.

7. Bearing these considerations in mind, the TSB recommended that the two parties to the agreement consult on an appropriate occasion, under the provisions of Article 9 of the agreement, with a view to reviewing some of its specific limits or aspects thereof, any modifications resulting from such consultations to be duly notified to the TSB.

8. Following its review of this notification, the TSB agreed to transmit it to the Textiles Committee for its information.

Sweden/Brazil, India, Philippines, Yugoslavia

9. The TSB received a notification by Sweden informing it of the provisional extension, for periods between four and eight months, of each of the bilateral agreements with Brazil, India, Philippines, and Yugoslavia.

10. Pending the conclusion of any new bilateral agreements between Sweden and these four countries, or any further extension of the current agreements, the TSB decided not to address itself to these provisional extensions at this juncture and agreed to transmit the notifications to the Textiles Committee for its information.
