The draft paper attached is submitted for discussion at the 15-16 April 1985 meeting of the Technical Sub-Committee.
NOTES:

The following list provides draft nomenclature for the H.S. Code numbers (6-digit numbers) included in the Secretariat's list of January 15, 1985.

The draft nomenclature is intended to preserve current aircraft product coverage and to correspond as closely as possible to the equivalent H.S. nomenclature. Furthermore, the draft nomenclature to the extent possible has been worded to permit identification of covered products without recourse to H.S. headings and nomenclature not included in the annex list. As a result, many of the proposed product descriptions paraphrase or combine the H.S. text.

In some cases it was necessary to reduce the scope of the products covered by the 6-digit H.S. code number in order to conform with the coverage of the aircraft agreement. Text which has been added to the equivalent H.S. nomenclature to preserve current aircraft product coverage is indicated by underscoring, text which has been deleted for the same purpose is indicated by the following: ...

H.S. code numbers and/or product coverage which have not been agreed to, but which appear on the Secretariat's list, have been placed in square brackets ([ ]) pending final resolution by the Aircraft Committee. These items generally fall into three groups: products which may be covered by the agreement, but are never used on aircraft (theoretical products), products which are covered by one or more of the current annex lists, but do not appear in all lists (non-equivalent products) and products which are not covered by the agreement (expanded coverage products).
LIST OF PRODUCTS BASED ON THE HARMONIZED SYSTEM NOMENCLATURE

FOR THE PURPOSES OF THIS LIST, ONLY THE NAMED PRODUCTS OR GROUPS OF PRODUCTS CLASSIFIED UNDER THE REFERENCED HARMONIZED SYSTEM (H.S.) CODES WILL BE ACCORDED DUTY FREE OR DUTY EXEMPT TREATMENT WHEN THEY ARE FOR USE IN CIVIL AIRCRAFT AND INCORPORATED THEREIN (EXCEPT FOR GROUND FLYING TRAINERS AND PARTS THEREOF OF H.S.C.ODE 8805.20 WHICH ARE ALSO INCLUDED EVEN THOUGH THEY ARE NOT INCORPORATED IN CIVIL AIRCRAFT). "EX" INDICATES THAT THE LISTED PRODUCT DESCRIPTION MAY NOT EXHAUST THE ENTIRE RANGE OF PRODUCTS INCLUDED UNDER THE REFERENCED H.S. CODE.
