ARGENTINA - MEASURES WITH REGARD TO IMPORTATION OF CERTAIN DAIRY PRODUCTS

The following communication, dated 13 July 1981, has been received from the Permanent Mission of Argentina.

I have the honour to notify recent measures taken by the Argentine authorities with regard to importation of certain dairy products. The measures are in the nature of minimum import prices, with the following price levels by product:

- Whole milk powder: US$2,200 per ton
- Skimmed milk powder: US$1,600 per ton
- Blue-veined cheeses: US$3,750 per ton
- Gouda, Edam and semi-hard cheeses: US$3,000 per ton
- Gruyère or Emmenthal: US$3,750 per ton
- Processed cheese: US$3,750 per ton
