International Dairy Arrangement

COMMODITY DESCRIPTION AND CODING

Note by the Secretariat

Corrigendum

Please replace pages 9 and 10 of document DPC/W/77 by the following:
ANNEX III
Draft Decision

At its eighteenth session on 23 March 1988, the International Dairy Products Council noted that most participants had already implemented the new Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) from 1 January 1988, and that other participants were expected to implement the new system shortly.

The Council agreed:

- that Article II:1 of the International Dairy Arrangement should be read as follows:

"Article II - Product Coverage

1. This Arrangement applies to the dairy products sector. For the purpose of this Arrangement, the term "dairy products" is deemed to include the following products, as defined in the new Commodity Description and Coding System (Harmonized System) established by the Custom’s Co-operation Council.
