1. At a special meeting on 29 March 1994, the Committee of the Protocol Regarding Milk Fat reviewed the Derogation Pursuant to Article 7:1 which it had decided to grant on 22 June 1993 (DPC/PTL/32), and which it had extended on 20 December 1993 (DPC/PTL/36). The Committee noted its discussions with respect to the adjustment of the minimum price levels and the limited opportunities for sales above the existing minimum price levels, particularly into the countries of the former Soviet Union.

2. In light of the circumstances, the Committee decided to extend the Derogation Pursuant to Article 7:1 for exports of butter and butter oil to countries of the former Soviet Union to:

   (i) sales contracts unconditionally concluded before 31 May 1994, and

   (ii) deliveries pursuant to this Decision completed by 31 August 1994, and

   (iii) for a maximum of 16,500 metric tons (butter equivalent) in addition to the 50,000 tons per participant permitted under the Decisions of 22 June 1993 and of 20 December 1993.

3. The notification and other procedures provided for in paragraphs 3 and 4 of the Decision of 22 June 1993 would continue to apply.
