The following notification, dated 9 November 1993, has been received from the Permanent Representative of New Zealand with the request that it be circulated to parties to the International Dairy Arrangement.

Pursuant to the IDA derogation for sales of butter to the former Soviet Union, I should be grateful if you would notify IDA participants of the following sale by the New Zealand Dairy Board:

- Quantity: 4,000 tons of unsalted butter
- Destination: Russia (Baltic Port)
- Delivery: To be completed before the end of December 1993
- Price: US$1,200/ton c. & f.
