5. Title: Establishment of Comprehensive Licensing Standards by Categories of Cosmetics

6. Description of content: In order to introduce a comprehensive licensing system into the existing licensing system of cosmetics, the standards which consist of names and specifications of ingredients allowed shall be newly established by categories of cosmetics. In case that a manufacturer or an importer has a comprehensive licence for manufacturing or importing of those categories of cosmetics, no licence shall be required on a product-by-product basis for cosmetics which comply with these standards and only an advance notification shall suffice. The standards of the following seven categories of cosmetics shall be established this time:
   - General perfumes, powdered perfumes, eau-de-cologne, cosmetic soap, nail enamels, nail enamel removers, toothpaste.

7. Objective and rationale: Simplification and promptness in certification procedures of cosmetics

8. Relevant documents: The basic law is the Pharmaceutical Affairs Law

9. Proposed dates of adoption and entry into force: 30 July 1986
