Delete the third sentence on page 2: "If what was meant... Working Party" of the speech by the UNITED KINGDOM representative, and replace by the following:

"If the intention was the continued protection of industries which had been established during the war, and which had enjoyed protection equivalent to quantitative restrictions through the effect of shortages and their abnormal circumstances, this was a special case which might be given further consideration, in relation either to Article 13 or Article 14."

-----