6. The Members recognize that tariff descriptions based on distinctive regional or geographical names should not be used in such a manner as to discriminate against products of Member countries. Accordingly, the Members shall co-operate with each other and through the Organization with a view to eliminating at the earliest practicable date practices which are inconsistent with this principle.