The following changes should be made in the Draft Report:

1. In paragraph 7 on pages 2 - 4 the following reservations should be deleted:
   - Article 17 - Guatemala, Denmark and the United Kingdom.
   - Article 23 - Greece
   - Article 24 - Mexico
   - Article 34 - India

   and on pages 3 and 5 the following reservations should be added:
   - Article 24 - Argentina
   - Article 42 - New Zealand and, on pages 4 and 5, Australia.

2. In the Report of Sub-Committee F, on pages 15 to 16, the following changes should be made:

   In the penultimate paragraph on page 15, the word "that" in the first line should be deleted, and in the tenth line after the word "Application" the words "to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade" should be inserted.

   The paragraph at the foot of page 15 and the top of page 16 should be amended to read as follows:

   "Article 23 itself defines the exceptions to the rule of non-discrimination permissible during the post-war transitional period. This transitional period and its application in respect of individual Members are defined by reference to the Articles of Agreement of the International Monetary Fund. The discriminatory measures, including adaptations thereof, permitted under paragraph 1 of the Article may be applied by a Member during the transitional period without the prior approval of the Organization. After the termination of the transitional period for each and every Member provision is made for limited departures from the rule of non-discrimination with prior approval of the Organization."

   /In the third
In the third last line on paragraph 16 the square brackets round the word "approved" should be deleted, and the document reference in the last line should read "E/CONF.2/C.3/93."

3. In the Report of Sub-Committee G on page 17 the last two paragraphs should be amended to read as follows:

"The Sub-Committee found that the solution proposed by the Delegation of Switzerland would constitute too great a weakening of the principles of the Charter. However, in view of the recognition of the special consideration required to be given to the case of Switzerland, the Sub-Committee recommended that the Conference should direct the Interim Commission to invite the Swiss Government to participate in a study of the problems facing the Swiss economy with a view to submitting to the first Conference of the Organization a report as to the measures which could be taken in accordance with the procedures established in the Charter for dealing with the Swiss problem.

"The Committee approved this recommendation."
