Mr. LECUYER (France) said that he fully appreciated what the delegate of Czechoslovakia had in mind and was glad to have this opportunity of recalling the high standard of Czechoslovak films. However, although questions regarding the cinema in general did not fall within the competence of the Conference, he saw nothing unusual in the inclusion in the Charter of certain provisions regarding the practical question of regulations for the exhibition of films. From this point of view, Article 19 was, he thought, acceptable and he asked the delegate of Czechoslovakia not to maintain his request for the deletion of the Article.

3. ARTICLE 33

Mr. LECUYER (France) agreed that the present text should be closely followed. They must avoid any definition of dumping which might affect normal everyday business transactions. As regards safeguards to be used against dumping practices, the delegation of France had always maintained that such safeguards should not necessarily be limited to measures of a merely compensatory character.
