Mr. ROYER (France) .

End of third paragraph

Instead of: "The spirit in which these matters were dealt with in practice was illustrated by the fact that France had not at Geneva required Chile, Syria or Lebanon to remove the quantitative restrictions they were imposing at the present time."

Read: "The spirit in which these matters were dealt with in practice was illustrated by the fact that at Geneva Chile, Syria or Lebanon were not required to remove the quantitative restrictions they were imposing at the present time."

Paragraph 4

Instead of: ".....manner. There were exceptions provided for the transition period in Article 14 and the delegation of France reserved its right to make proposals concerning these."

Read: ".....manner. There were certain cases which were not adequately covered and the French delegation would make suggestions in due time. Article 14 provided for a transitional period in the case of undeveloped countries."

End of paragraph 4 read:

"France was prepared to do that and to accept the powers of the Organization provided that the Organization is international, efficient and impartial; the powers granted to the Organization were moderate indeed and were not those of a super-state."
