Addition to paragraph 1, Article 67
(d) to any inter-governmental commodity agreement, or any provision in such an agreement, made to meet the essential requirements of national security.

Note

The provisions of this Chapter do not appropriately apply to agreements relating to military security. It is therefore considered that such agreements should be excepted.