Art. 83A

Relation with the United Nations

1. The Organization shall be brought into relationship with the United Nations as soon as practicable as one of the specialized agencies referred to in Article 57 of the Charter of the United Nations. This relationship shall be effected by agreement to be approved by the Conference.
2. Any such agreement shall, subject to the provisions of this

/Charter
Charter, provide for effective co-operation and the avoidance of unnecessary duplication in the activities of the respective organizations, and for co-operation in furthering the restoration and maintenance of international peace and security.

3. The Members recognize that the Organization should not attempt to take action which would involve passing judgment, in whole or in part, on essential political issues. In order to avoid conflict of responsibility between the United Nations and the Organization with respect to political matters, any measure which is directly in connection with a political matter brought before the United Nations in accordance with Chapter IV or VI of the United Nations Charter shall be deemed to fall within the scope of the United Nations, and shall not be subject to the provisions of this Charter.

4. No action, taken by a Member in pursuance of its obligations under the United Nations Charter for the restoration and maintenance of international peace and security, shall be deemed to conflict with the provisions of this Charter.

Interpretative Note to Article 83A

(a) If any Member raises the question whether a measure taken under paragraph 3 of this Article is in fact directly in connection with a political matter brought before the United Nations in accordance with the terms of Chapter IV or Chapter VI of the United Nations Charter, the responsibility for making a determination on the question shall rest with the International Trade Organization, but if political issues beyond the competence of the Organization are involved the question shall be deemed to fall within the scope of the United Nations.

(b) If a Member which has no direct political concern in the matter brought before the United Nations finds that a measure taken under paragraph 3 of this Article nullifies or impairs any benefit accruing to it directly or indirectly in the absence of such measures, it shall seek redress only by recourse to the procedures laid down in Chapter VIII of the Charter of the International Trade Organization.

Article 93

(a) Delete the phrase "except as provided in Article 15" in paragraph 2 and the footnote referring to that phrase.

(b) Insert a new paragraph 3 reading as follows and renumber the subsequent paragraphs accordingly:

"3. Notwithstanding the provisions of paragraph 2 of this Article, Members may enter into agreements with non-Members according to paragraph 3 of Article 15 or paragraph 6 of Article 42B."

Article 94 and Annex

Insert the following text of Article 94 and the annex thereto:

Article 94

General Exceptions

1. Nothing in this Charter shall be construed:
   (a) to require a Member to furnish any information the disclosure of which it considers contrary to its essential security interests; or
   (b) to prevent a Member from taking, either singly or with other states, any action which it considers necessary for the protection of its essential security interests, where such action:
      (i) relates to fissileable materials or the materials from which they are derived;
      (ii) relates to the traffic in arms, ammunition and implements of war and to such traffic in other goods and materials as is carried on directly or indirectly for the purpose of supplying a military establishment of the Member or of any other country;
      (iii) is taken in time of war or other emergency in international relations; or
      (c) to prevent a Member from entering into or carrying out any inter-governmental agreement, or other agreement on behalf of a government for the purpose specified in this exception, made by or for a military establishment for the purpose of meeting essential requirements of the national security of one or more of the participating countries or
      (d) to prevent action taken in accordance with the terms of Annex 00 to the Charter.

2. Nothing in this Charter shall override:
   (a) any of the provisions of peace treaties or permanent settlements resulting from the Second World War which are or shall be in force and which are or shall be registered with the United Nations, or
   (b) any of the provisions of instruments creating Trust Territories or any other special regimes established by the United Nations.

/ANNEX 00
ANNEX CO

SPECIAL PROVISIONS REGARDING INDIA AND PAKISTAN

Since there are special circumstances arising out of the establishment of India and Pakistan as independent states, and since they have long constituted an economic unit, the provisions of the Charter shall not prevent the two countries from entering into special agreements with respect to the trade between them, pending the establishment of their mutual trade relations on a definitive basis. Measures adopted by India and Pakistan in order to carry out definitive agreements in respect of their mutual trade, once they have been agreed upon, may depart from particular provisions of this Charter; Provided that such measures are in general consistent with the purpose and objectives of the Charter.

Article 99

The following explanatory note should be inserted at the end of the text of Article 99:

"Explanatory Note to Article 99

"None of the provisions of this Article shall be interpreted as prejudicing the rights which have been or may be invoked by States in connection with territorial questions or disputes concerning territorial sovereignty."
