1. The delegation of Ecuador has submitted the following revision of its amendment to paragraph 2, Article 1, on page 29 of the Annotated Agenda:

"Add the following after paragraph 2:
".....To assure an equitable regulation of prices on the international market so that a fair relationship may be maintained between the standard of living in countries which mainly produce raw materials and that in countries which mainly produce manufactured goods."

2. The delegation of Ecuador has now submitted the following explanation of its amendment:

"At the United Nations Assembly held in London on 29 January 1946, the delegations of the following countries voted in favour of the above principle:

"Argentina, Australia, Belgium, Byelorussian SSR, Bolivia, Brazil, Canada, Colombia, Costa Rica, Cuba, Czecho-slovakia, Chile, China, Dominican Republic, Ecuador, Egypt, France, Greece, Guatemala, India, Iran, Lebanon, Liberia, Luxembourg, Mexico, the Netherlands, New Zealand, Peru, the Philippines, Poland, South Africa, Syria, Turkey, the United Kingdom, Ukrainian SSR, Uruguay and Yugoslavia."