The delegation of Mexico proposes to insert the following paragraph after paragraph 2 of the statement of objectives in Article 1:

"To support a general policy which takes into account the wide disparity which frequently exists between the return to producers of raw materials and the producers of manufactured commodities so as to establish, as far as practicable, equity between those producers."