The representative of Mexico reserved his position regarding the proposal of his delegation to add a new paragraph between the present paragraphs 3 and 4 (document E/CONF.2/C.6/12/Add.12) until the whole of Article 1 had been drafted by the Sub-Committee.

The proposal of the delegation of Norway to change the title of the Organization to "International Trade and Employment Organization" was withdrawn.

Various wordings were discussed to meet the amendment to the preamble suggested by the delegation of Uruguay (document E/CONF.2/C.6/12). The first part of this amendment, namely, the following redraft of the opening words of the preamble: "Recognizing the determination of the United Nations to create necessary conditions of stability and wellbeing through peaceful and friendly relations among nations", was accepted unanimously. Although the principle of the remaining part of the amendment was accepted, no wording could be found in the Sub-Committee and the representatives of Uruguay and the United States were asked to consult again with a view to finding a wording acceptable to both of them.

In view of the acceptance in principle of the proposal of the delegation of Uruguay above mentioned, the representative of El Salvador withdrew the amendment to the preamble suggested by his delegation (document E/CONF.2/C.6/12/Add.11).

The Working Party set up to consider, inter alia, the amendment to paragraph 2 proposed by the delegation of Ecuador (document E/CONF.2/C.6/12) not having come to a unanimous conclusion, this amendment was again referred to the Working Party for further consideration.

Since the second meeting it was found that delegations had not been able to agree upon a definite wording for the new paragraph proposed by the delegation of France delegation of France (document E/CONF.2/0.6/12). The delegations of France, and the United States were asked to consult regarding this amendment.

It was found that the Working Party had not been able to agree upon the amendments to paragraph 4 presented by the delegations of Mexico and Uruguay. Accordingly the Working Party was asked to reconsider this matter with a view to finding a unanimous solution.