Page 3 - Replace the last paragraph:

"Mr. RICHARD (France) said that it would .........."

by the following:

"Mr. RICHARD (France) said that it would often be difficult for Members to refuse advantages offered to them by Non-Members. But another aspect of the problem that must not be overlooked was the position of Members faced with agreements between Non-Members and other Members. The problem was obviously complex. It should nevertheless be borne in mind that strict application of the Charter by two Members might make trade between them more difficult than between a Member and a Non-Member.

While reserving the position of the French delegation, he thought that the Chairman's statement of principle showed the way in which the Sub-Committee should proceed."
