The United Nations Conference on Trade and Employment, having given serious consideration to the relation of the International Trade Organization and the International Court of Justice; and having in mind the necessity for expeditious and simple procedures for the settlement of disputes or differences arising out of the Charter; and having provided, in Article 91 of the Charter, procedures for review of legal questions arising out of decisions of the Organization by the International Court; consequently:

Therefore resolves that:

The International Trade Organization shall, through appropriate means, consult with the International Court of Justice in such manner as may appear to be appropriate; and

That such consultation shall be directed toward improvement of procedures established by the International Trade Organization or the Court for review of legal questions in accordance with the provisions of Chapter VIII of the Charter and the Statute of the Court.
