Note from Norwegian Delegation regarding Non-Discriminatory Quantitative Regulations.

Arising from document E/PC/T/221, the following statement has been lodged with the Secretariat by the Norwegian Delegation:

"Referring to Doc. E/PC/T/221, and to paragraph 6 of Article XVIII of the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade, I beg to inform you that in Norway quantitative regulations, imposed for the establishment, development or reconstruction of particular industries or particular branches of agriculture, are at present applied on the following products:

- Lard
- Shortening butter
- Evaporated milk
- Dried milk
- Salted mutton
- Sawn timber and plane boards of softwood
- Plywood
- Feeding stuffs
- Molasses
- Products of whale
- Certain seeds
- Flower bulbs
- Potatoes
- Mixed fertiliser
- Superphosphate
- Oysters

Owing to the limited time it is not possible to state whether all of the regulations mentioned above will be maintained.

Yours sincerely,

Signed: Paal Bog.
Secretary,
Norwegian Delegation."
