Exchange of Notes at Final Meeting

The Secretariat has received the following communication from the United States Delegation:

"The United States proposes to sign the following bilateral instruments on the day of the signature of the Final Act adopted at the Second Sessions:

Agreement between the United States of America and the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland Supplementary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Agreement between the United States of America and Canada Supplementary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Agreement between the United States of America and the French Republic Supplementary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Exclusive Agreement between the United States of America and the Republic of Cuba Supplementary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Agreement between the United States of America and the United States of Brazil Supplementary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Agreement between the United States of America and Belgium Supplementary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

Agreement between the United States of America and the Netherlands Supplementary to the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade.

All of the foregoing instruments, which will be signed in duplicate, are concerned with the relationship between existing trade agreements between the United States and the countries concerned and the General Agreement on Tariffs and Trade."