Corrigendum to Verbatim Report of the Thirty-third Meeting of Commission A (E/PC/T/A/PV/33)

The following corrections should be made to the remarks of Dr. A.B. Speekenbrink (Netherlands):

Should read as follows:

"For instance, I might say that at present we have a time of emergency as a number of Peace Treaties have not yet been signed and that therefore it might still be essential to have as much food in my country as possible. This would then force us to do everything to develop our agriculture notwithstanding all the provisions of this Charter. This example might be a little bit far fetched, but I only give it here to prove what is really worrying me about this subparagraph of which I still cannot get the proper meaning."
