The remarks of Mr. Leddy (United States) in document E/PC/T/A/PV/34 should be corrected as follows:

p. 6, line 13. - The word "consider" should read "delete".

p. 9, line 15. - The first two sentences should read as follows:

"I do not think it has yet been decided that the Charter will not be signed. I think it may well be that we may wish to have a signature, and the mere fact that there is provision for an acceptance procedure does not prevent signature."

p. 13, lines 3-7. - These lines should read as follows:

"I believe that that note is intended to apply not to the whole of Article 17 but is pertinent only to paragraph 6, involving the possible use of quantitative restrictions. It should therefore be moved as a comment to paragraph 6 and amended to refer to paragraph 6.

p. 38, lines 12 and 24. - The word "illogical" appearing in these lines should read "logical".
