The following corrections should be made to the remarks by the Delegate of the United States:

Page 9, line 3 - delete "will", substitute "must" so as to read "to us there must be some confusion" lines 11 and 12 - delete "passed 'trade among States'", substitute "consider trade among States".

line 21 - delete "it is a", substitute "there are" so as to read "satisfied that there are reasonable grounds"

Line 29 - delete "the", substitute "this" so as to read "other than this situation"

Page 11, line 11 - insert "those" after "of" and before "other", delete "solutions", substitute "portions", so as to read "of those other portions".

Page 14 - The remarks of Mr. Rubin should read:

"Mr. SEYMOUR RUBIN (United States):
Mr. Chairman, I made a suggestion that a note be added here only because it seemed to me that the discussions have indicated that perhaps there is in the minds of some members of the Commission some special infirmity which touches on these Articles of the Charter. In my view there is no such special infirmity. If there is a violation of the rights and obligations set down in the Articles of the Charter, a complaint can be presented to the Organization. Now, under those Articles, like under most other Articles of the Charter, the way in which a complaint".

Page 15, line 11 - insert "that" after "I said" and before "a special infirmity" so as to read "I said that a special infirmity".

Page 25, line 16 - delete "the", substitute "any drafting" so as to read "accept any drafting change"

Page 83, line 4 - delete "never have existed", substitute "not now exist", so as to read "obligations would not now exist."

Page 15, line 12 - delete "investigations", substitute "clauses" so as to read "these particular clauses - that I make a suggestion"
